

Kas

The charming sea side resorts of Kas and Kalkan nestle at the feet of a beautiful mountain range and are surrounded by the clear blue Mediterranean. Both resorts are well known for their traditional Ottoman houses overhanging the cobbled streets, and though unspoiled by mass tourism, Kas and Kalkan offer ample shopping opportunities from carpets to clothing.

From Kas harbour, boats will lead you to a number of secluded bays where crystal waters invite you for a relaxing swim. Kalkan too has a small harbour lined with cafes, restaurants and bars.

Both are within close proximity to Kaputas beach which is accessible by Dolmus along with the ancient cities of Xanthos and Patara. Kas and Kalkan are attractive seaside towns surrounded by nature and history where you can escape from commercial Turkey and relax in the splendid sunshine.
